BERRIES vs OLYMPIC AGAIN IN 2009!

Football NSW has released the DRAFT DRAW for the 2009 NSW Premier League season and yet again we will have Sydney Olympic up against the West Sydney Berries in the opening round!

This time however it will be Sydney Olympic's home game- the match currently scheduled for the 1st March 2009 at Belmore Sports ground (3pm kickoff).

Sydney Olympic will surely be out for a brighter start to the new season- unlike in 2008 when the newcomers blew Olympic away courtesy of a stunning 3-1 scoreline under lights at the Sydney Athletic Centre at Homebush.

NO JOHNNY WARREN CUP!

Due to financial reasons, Football NSW has further decided NOT to run the Johnny Warren Cup competition in 2009.

All clubs will now be shedding their own set of trials leading into the new Premier League season which will officially kickoff on Saturday 28th February 2009.

Expect to hear news about an alternative tournament currently being
