ONLY THREE LEFT STANDING

Only three 3 teams, two games are left to find one champion. The Hyundai A-League Final Series presented by FOXTEL steps up a gear this weekend.

At the pointy end of the competition there is no room for error – only the perfect match.

Adelaide United will meet Queensland Roar this Saturday in the Hyundai A-League Preliminary Final, with both teams putting it all on the line for the second spot in the Grand Final.

The winner of the Preliminary Final match will then face Melbourne Victory on Saturday 28 February at the Telstra Dome, Melbourne, 7.30pm AEDT.

Adelaide United v Queensland Roar
- Preliminary Final
Saturday 21 February,
Hindmarsh Stadium, 6.30pm local time (7.00pm AEDT)

Adelaide United will become the most experienced Hyundai A-League finals series team this weekend, with the 2009 Preliminary Final being the club's 10th Hyundai A-League finals match.

Adelaide United will be aiming to turn their finals luck around. Despite having the most finals appearances, Adelaide United is the only club with finals experience yet to win a finals match (aside from one win on penalties). It's a statistical anomaly Adelaide United will be striving to fix this Saturday.

After having won their previous four matches, Queensland Roar is aiming to win five matches in a row. Only Adelaide United (2005/06 season) and Melbourne Victory (2006/07) have won more than four consecutive matches before.

Adelaide United's Lucas Pantelis is set to make his 50th Hyundai A-League appearance.

NATIONAL YOUTH LEAGUE GRAND FINAL 'LIVE' ON FOX SPORTS

It's set to be a weekend of many firsts for the National Youth League competition – with the inaugural Grand Final and the first live broadcast match set to take place.

The National Youth League Grand Final will be shown live and exclusive on FOX SPORTS 3 this Saturday from 2.30pm local time, 3.00pm.

The top two ranked teams in the youth competition, Sydney FC and Adelaide United, will go head-to-head at Hindmarsh Stadium in Adelaide as they battle it out for the title.

LIFE BACK AT GALAXY WILL BE DIFFERENT

David Beckham is scheduled to return to LA Galaxy shortly – but when he gets there expect things to be very very different.

“Goldenballs” himself is starting to have second thoughts about whether he is actually wasting his football career away whilst he is in Los Angeles.

The England midfielder, on a two-month loan at Milan, now wants to stay in Italy. But Galaxy has categorically stated that he must go back to Los Angeles after a Major League Soccer deadline to complete the transfer passed.

“I've said I want to stay here and if I do go back then it will be a bit difficult but we'll have to wait and see what happens,” Beckham told reporters after AC Milan's 2-1 defeat by Inter Milan.

FNSW SUPPORTS BUSHFIRE APPEAL

In last week's edition I wrote about Football NSW's slow response to supporting the bushfire victims.

I can correct that today by saying that all football clubs and associations have been asked to put a container out and help collect for the Red Cross Appeal.

In addition to this support, Football NSW will also be directly donating to this appeal.

Bravo Football NSW.
