FULHAM COMING TO AUSTRALIA

Gold Coast United have confirmed they will host English Premier League side Fulham in a pre-season friendly at Skilled Park on Wednesday 8th July.

The game will be the first in a trio of Australian matches for the Premiership side, with Melbourne Victory and Perth Glory already locking in dates against the side whose goal is protected by Socceros' custodian, Mark Schwarzer. Fulham are enjoying one of their most successful English Premiership seasons and currently lie in ninth place with three matches to play.

OLYMPIC vs SHARKS

Sydney Olympic may have lost 2-1 last weekend to Sydney United who remain undefeated, but they can look ahead with plenty of confidence against the Sutherland Sharks this weekend.

The Blues have indicated in recent weeks that they are "Top 5" team and their clash at Belmore on Sunday is one not to be missed.

Both teams are on 15 points, they are both in the "Top 5", and both have had very little trouble finding the back of the net- having scored 20 goals already.

Another great game for all of you to get to this weekend.

BERRIES BREAK DROUGHT!

Great news.....

The West Sydney Berries have bro-

Matthew Mayora in action

Tolgay Ozbey (Sydney Olympic)

Goals: 7

Luka Glavas (Sydney United)

Goals: 6

TWO SYDNEY OLYMPIC BOYS IN AUSSIE U/13's

Eight NSW boys have been selected in the Australian U/13's side set to participate in a training camp at the AIS in Canberra from 7th-10th May 2009- two of which hail from Sydney Olympic.

Coached by current Penrith Nepean United defender Ante Juric, the former Socceroo star selected a 30 man squad for the camp which also includes Vince Giannini (Sydney Olympic) and Adrian Lara (Sydney Olympic). From this training camp, a final squad of twenty two (22) players, will be selected to represent Australia at the upcoming Asian Football Confederation (AFC) U/13's - Festival of Football which will be held in Sabah, Malaysia from 24th May to 6th June 2009.

BETEZY-BET-OF-THE-WEEK

Hi Punters,

This week is a real hard week to find a winner with open races everywhere.

I can only find one horse all day that might be a reasonable price

Brisbane Race 2 no. 6 Yass River

The English Premier League soccer is coming to an end with some real exciting finishes in the promotion and relegation stakes.

I have found some great value to bet on:

Leeds United to gain promotion at $2.90.

Hull City to be relegated from the Premier League at $3.00.

Good Punting,

The Scotsman

ken the drought!

They've FINALLY scored a goal- two in fact.....

And they have also won a game- their second for 2009.

Kosta Lagoudakis was the man responsible for delivering the all-important goal against Wollongong FC and Dimitri Zakilas added a second for good measure.

The Berries' second win of the season has given the club hope of surviving 2009- even though they still remain in last spot with Wollongong on the Club

Championship ladder after Round 9.

NSWPL TOP GOALSCORERS

Whilst on goalscoring this week, "Sportsworld" has been spruiking all season that Tolgay Ozbey could become the 2009 NSWPL Top Goalscorer- and so far we look to be on target.

Sydney Olympic actually has two players in The "Top 3" so far:

Matthew Mayora (Sydney Olympic)

Goals: 8
