SET THE ALARM CLOCK!

The Qantas Socceroos are scheduled to play their next FIFA World Cup Qualifying match (and final away game for this qualifying series) against Qatar on 6th June at Al-Sadd Club in Doha.

Australia needs only 1 point from three remaining games to qualify the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

This means that a win or a draw in Doha will secure the Qantas Socceroos a place at the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa- for only the third time in Australia's football history!

The match will be broadcast live and exclusive on FOX Sports at 2.00am on 7th June.

So set the alarm, wear the green and gold and show your support for the Qantas Socceroos.

WORLD CUP BID?

The FFA will officially launch Australia's bid to host the 2018/2022 FIFA World Cup on Sunday 14th June in Parliament House, Canberra.

NOT GOOD ENOUGH FOR THE BERRIES

He was considered not good enough to be offered a renewed contract th the West Sydney Berries- so he was snapped up by Manly United instead!

Over the weekend talented player Josh Sama YET AGAIN proved his worth by scoring one of the many goals he has scored in 2009- only this time his goal secured three vital points against Sutherland.

Manly United striker Josh Sama

Congratulations to Josh- a player "Sportsworld" at least has always regarded highly.

FNSW Golden Boot AWARD

Isn't it great to see Panagioti Nikas in the "Top 3" ace marksmen of this year's Telechoice Premier League competition?

Isn't it ironic that he does not play for either one of our two Greek background teams?

Never mind.....

Keep up the great work Panny.

HAWKS SOAR INTO "TOP 5"

My mate Tass Fiakos is proving to some people just how well he CAN coach by causing the upset of the round in Division One last weekend.

The Stanmore Hawks smashed the more fancied Blacktown Spartans 3-0 at Arlington Oval and now find themselves in the "Top 5" for the first time in 2009.

The Hawks (16pts) can consolidate their position if they can defeat the Fairfield City Lions (9pts) on Sunday at Arlington Oval.

AFL FOR ACT?

After having been unsuccessful in getting a foothold in the west of Sydney, AFL officials are currently in secretive talks with the ACT Government in the hope of at least breaking into Canberra now as a possible second franchise in NSW.

Interestingly, the AFL's current deal to play two home-and-away games and two pre-season games in the ACT each year expires at the end of this season. It is anticipated that they will be seeking an extension of the deal for the home-and-away games until 2011.

The AFL believes the new ACT team could mirror the success of Hawthorn in Tasmania by forming an affiliation with Canberra. The Hawks currently enjoy substantial spoils from the Tasmanian Government in return for playing four home games in Launceston.
