Ο Όμιλος Κρητικής Παράδοσης βοηθά τα παιδιά μας για να δημιουργήσουν μέσα από πολύμορφες επικοινωνίες και συναντήσεις το ζεστό Κρητικό συντροφισμα στη ζωή, στη δράση και στη σκόλη, στη χαρά και τον πόνο, στο στοχασμό και τ' όνειρο, έτσι για να νοιώσουμε ξανά τον παλμό της αιωνόβιας Κρήτης να μας σμίγει και πάλι σε καινούριες αναζητήσεις.

Ο Όμιλος Κρητικής Παράδοσης και φέτος συνεχίζει να προσφέρει τη δυνατότητα στα ελληνόπουλα της παροικίας μας να μάθουν τους περήφανους χορούς του τόπου μας. Τα μαθήματα εκμάθησης ελληνικών χορών δίδονται φέτος κάθε Πέμπτη βράδυ από τις 7.30 μ.μ. στο οίκημα της Κυπριακής Κοινότητας 58-76 Stanmore Road STANMORE. Τα μαθήματα είναι εντελώς δωρεάν, προσφορά του Ομίλου Κρητικής Παράδοσης, στα ελληνόπουλα του Σύνδνεϋ.

Bilingual childrens book competition

The School Office of the Greek Orthodox Community of South Australia (GOCSA) is organising a Children's Bilingual Story Book Competition.

Following last year's successful outcome with the publishing of Kalyani Huilgol's "Whatapotamus", the Competition is open to all students attending afternoon and Saturday Greek Language Schools.

All interested students are invited to write an original story in both Greek and English, approximately 250 words, and to submit their entry in electronic format

(on CD) as well as hard copy, to the Schools Office by Friday 3rd July 2009.

A panel of judges will select the winning story that will be professionally published and placed in the Greek Schools Resource Centre.

The winning book will be launched at a special ceremony during the Adelaide Hellenic Cultural Festival Odyssey 2009.

Students have the option of illustrating their stories although this will not be criteria on which they will be judged.

The selection criteria include:

- Simple, concise and complete sentences;
- Correct use of language (syntax and grammar);
- Originality;
- Interesting story line and/or content and
- Contemporary moral message or conclusion.
- Interested participants can send their stories to the Greek Language Schools at GOCSA.

Greeks Australians make 200 BRW rich list

Despite the massive evaporation of wealth in 2008 - 2009 due to the global financial crisis, the biggest since the Great Depression, six Greek Australians made the 200 rich list in BRW. Those that made the BRW 200 list are:

Mining entrepreneur, Kerry Harmanis, whose personal fortune is valued at $500 million; Owner of the National Leisure and Gaming Hotel Group, Theo Karydis, whose personal fortune is valued at $356 million;

Technology entrepreneur, George Koukis, whose personal fortune is valued at $270 million; Shopping centre mogul Con Makris and his eldest son Ross, whose combined personal fortune is valued at $1.07 billion;

Pearliers, the Paspaley family, whose personal fortune is valued at $536 million; The property developer, Harry Stamoulis and his family whose personal fortune is valued at $389 million. Three other Greek Australians just missed out: Con Constantine, the owner of the Newcastle Jets;

Queensland developers, the Raptis Family, and, the fishing magnates, the Kailis family. Their personal fortunes were valued at between $130 million to $142 million, which was not enough to earn them a spot on the BRW Rich List.
