SYDNEY OLYMPIC HUMILIATED!

I'm sorry, there is no other way to put it...

Sydney Olympic has been humiliated (yet again), by the West Sydney Berries.

Anyone who saw Olympic play on Sunday against the Sydney Tigers at Leichhardt Oval would know that a similar scoreline was avoided thanks primarily to the acrobatics of goalkeeper Sam Emmanouil.

Sydney Olympic has done ABSOLUTELY NOTHING to address its horrendous defence in 2009 - and has again paid the ultimate price - a massacre at the hands of arch rivals the Berries on Tuesday evening!

The Berries are to be congratulated for taking full advantage of Olympic's atrocious defence in a result that SHOULD now guarantee them a position in next year's Premier League competition.

As for Sydney Olympic, they really do need to come up with some very quick answers. They are one of THE WORST DEFENSIVE TEAMS IN THE LEAGUE- having conceded a massive 29 goals now in 13 matches played.

Doesn't sound like a team going places in 2009 does it?

IS BOSNICH THE ANSWER?

Sydney Olympic in the meantime has been parading new signing Mark

Mark Bosnich

Bosnich allover Sydney.

Off the field of play Sydney Olympic has been doing EVERYTHING right.

Great Launch last Wednesday evening at Aqua Milson's Point...

And what great publicity for the club and the game in NSW in general with new signing Mark Bosnich.

But on the park...

Oh my God!

The players should hang their heads in shame...

All of them.

The club deserves better- and these guys owe it to themselves to turn up and give the club's supporters something better than the rubbish they have been dishing up the past fortnight!

But back to the question...

Will Bosnich be the answer to the club's problems?

Will he be able to singlehandedly address the leaky defence?

I have my doubts - primarily because the defenders in front of him are simply not good enough. I hope I am proven wrong, and only time will tell if I am.

LOOPHOLE CLOSED!

Thanks to one Premier League club's antics, Football NSW has moved swiftly to close a loophole exploited by clubs in relation to closing their grounds due to bad weather.

No longer will it be up to them and from now on, Football NSW will have a greater say in the matter.

About time...

GHOSSAN SHINES FOR LIONS

Former Berries 'favourite son' Fadi Ghossan again starred in Bankstown City's 3-2 victory against Wollongong City midweek.

Fadi may not have scored but the Lions' "#10" will soon find the back of the net for the Lions once he acclimates to Aussie football once again.

ZAKILAS TREBLE

One player who has not had much problem finding the back of the net has been Berries player Dimitri Zakilas.

"Dimi" scored a well-deserved hat-trick against Sydney Olympic- and there are plenty more goals in store from this underrated striker.

BETEZY-BET-OF-THE-WEEK

Hi Punters,

This week we go to Queensland for the Stradbroke Hcp and the Derby. It will be great racing but can we back a winner? Yes I think so.

Suggested bets-

Queensland Derby - Nothin Leica Cat ran a huge in the QLD Oaks and is cherry ripe to win this race. Sydney Race 2- Angels Breath is nearing a win and Saturday could be the day.

My sportsbet looks easy this week with North Qld vs Cowboys (-8.5pts) to cover the line against Souths.

Good punting,

The scotsman
