SYDNEY UNITED LOOKING LIKE THE PREMIERS...

Fresh from a comfortable 2-0 victory over the West Sydney Berries last weekend Sydney United (37pts) continues to lead the Telechoice Premier League competition.

AND CLUB CHAMPIONS!

Sydney United also has a stranglehold on the overall 2009 Club Championship. United (248pts) leads from both Sutherland (215pts) and Bankstown City (211pts).

OLYMPIC'S SEASON STILL IN THE BALANCE

What a great result for Sydney

Olympic (24pts) last weekend- beating Manly United away from home 2-1.

The Blues' season still hangs in the balance though and they need to continue to keep winning IF they are to have any possible hope of seeing semi finals football in 2009.

Sydney Olympic MUST beat Blacktown City tomorrow in order to stay in touch with the other clubs. A loss could be disastrous for them.

The same goes for Bonnyrigg (24pts) who are in the same predicament as Sydney Olympic- however they do have a catch up game to play as well.

The White Eagles must also pick up points against Bankstown City so they too can remain close to the current "Top 5" clubs.

THE REST?

As indicated last week, the remaining clubs are purely going through the motions and are only playing for pride and the hope of finishing 2009 in the highest possible spot they can.

Wollongong FC will run last and will be the club fighting to avoid relegation.
