“OXI Day” Commemoration organized by AHEPA NSW

28th October 1940 “OXI Day” Commemoration was held by the State Dodge of NSW & NZ and District Lodge of NSW & NZ on the 30th October 2009 at the Ahepa Hall. The Opening of the programme was carried out by the Master of Ceremonies Mr Jim Tzavaras, followed by the welcoming of the Official guests: Mr Jim Antonakos (National President of AHEPA Australasia), Mr Jim Karedis (State President of AHEPA NSW & NZ), Mrs Ourania Rekas (District President of AHEPA NSW & NZ), and Mr Nickolas Varvaris (Mayor Kogarah Municipal Council) Ms Christine Stavropoulos, Mayoress Rockdale City Council and Mrs Paroula Thurban. The National Anthems and AHEPA hymn was presented by the AHEPA choir.

Students Christos Kostakidis and Akis Flambouridis recited poems and the dancing group of Paroula entertained guests with their great performance. Traditional songs also were heard by the AHEPA choir. Mr Jim Karedis made a presentation to Sydney University and Mrs Ourania Rekas to Macquarie University. The night ended with a celebration supper.
