Pame Paketo SPECIAL

'Tis the season for giving and receiving gifts, and being reunited with loved ones. And if there's one gift that any Greek living outside Greece would be wishing for, it would probably be this - a special package filled with memories, joys and wishes delivered to their living rooms via their TV sets - all the way from Greece!

Now on its fifth successful season, your favourite Alpha show Pame Paketo has been bringing warmth and closeness to expatriate Greeks worldwide by delivering packages to every corner of the earth where Greeks live.

Join presenter Vicky Xatzivasiliou who, in her unique touching way, will bridge distances, bring happiness and make Christmas wishes come true! Unwrap the special presents with your entire family from Greece this Holiday season with heart-warming and fascinating stories of famous and common Greeks on Pame Paketo-Festive, airing on Friday, 25 December at 13.15pm AEDT LIVE on Alpha and on Saturday 26 December at 23.00pm on a repeat, exclusively on UBI.

Also don't miss the PAME PAKETO SPECIAL with many surprises and a lot of music on Friday 01 January 2010 at 13.00pm AEDT LIVE on Alpha and again on Saturday 03 January 2010 at 23.00pm on repeat

Do not Stop Grigoris

News reporter Grigoris Mpakas sheds his investigative hat for a moment to undertake a different role. He becomes a

'postman' who transports messages of love, gifts and wishes - at times eponymously and at other times anonymously. In this special holiday episode, Grigoris Mpakas visits the country of Ioanninona. His first stop is the village of Filiates, where he meets the relatives of the singer Giorgos Lianos. They send through him sweets and wishes for Giorgos. And then he goes to the village Sklibani, the beloved place of origin of Christos Ferentinos. The postman speaks with relatives and friends of Christos and his 'hot admirer', and sends him a sheep so he can have a 'smell' of his hometown. Watch the heartwarming holiday special Do not Stop Grigoris, airing on New Year's Eve, Thursday, 31 December at 14.45pm AEDT on Star, exclusively on UBI.
