

Sophia Haska's Dance Group danced with pride at the Opera House

March 25 is the anniversary of Greece's struggle for Independence in 1821 after some 400 years of Ottoman occupation. The Inter-Communities Council of NSW of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of Australia organized a large-scale celebration in honour of Greece's Independence on-Sunday March 21, 2010. March 25 was chosen as the official date to commemorate the Revolution for its religious significance, as it coincides with the Feast of the Annunciation, which symbolizes birth.

The performance of traditional Greek dances was exceptional and the groups danced with pride and ...leventia!!! The photos prove the high standards of the Greek dance groups and make us all feel proud of our Greek heritage.
