COME PLAY SAYS QANTAS!

Football Federation Australia (FFA) announced Australia's first FIFA World Cup bid partnership with the world's most experienced airline, Qantas.

To mark the occasion a Qantas Boeing 747 aircraft painted with the words 'Come Play!' was unveiled, sending a clear message around the globe from now until December 2010 of Australia's aspiration to host the 2018 or 2022 FIFA World Cup.

"We are thrilled that Qantas has come on board as the first of our bid partners," said Chairman of FFA, Frank Lowy AC. "This partnership represents a historic milestone for our bid as we continue our efforts to bring the FIFA World Cup to Australia in 2018 or 2022".

"A World Cup on home soil is very achievable. It is a dream, an ambition and an aspiration shared by all Australians. And now, through the support of Qantas, we are one step closer to helping Australians connect with this dream," Mr Lowy said.

Qantas has supported football in Australia for more than a decade as naming rights sponsor of the Qantas Socceroos and all men's national teams since 2004 and has committed to the team through to March 2012.

FFA has decided to provide additional support so that North Queensland will be represented in the 2010/11 Hyundai A-League.

"The future of North Queensland Fury is an important part of our national football competition and it is clear to us that the fans and the community in North Queensland have a strong desire for the club to continue to grow," said FFA CEO Ben Buckley.

"The F-Troop has been fantastic in their support and with so much passion for their young football club we could not let it fail. There has been a tremendous amount of commitment and a significant level of financial support generated from people and businesses in the area but there is still more work to be done. The job is far from finished and we will continue to talk to potential investors and sponsors to make sure NQF is a viable proposition in the long term. Now that it is clear that NQF has a future I urge anyone in the area interested in being part of the club to come forward as it is not too late to become involved in a meaningful way."

BERRIES BOUNCE BACK!

The West Sydney Berries are the enigmatic team of 2010!

Just when you write them off... up off the canvass they get.

Their win against Manly United again places them in a comfortable mid-table spot.

A win against the Rockdale City Suns this weekend and they could very well be pressing for a "Top 5" spot once again.

OLYMPIC NOT GOOD ENOUGH!

It's as simple as the heading suggests. Sydney Olympic was NOT GOOD ENOUGH and it appears as though the squad in 2010 is NOT GOOD ENOUGH to achieve much at all.

It's well and good to stick by the coach...

It's also well and good to brag about how many Greek background players are in the team...

BUT...

Sydney Olympic occupies second last spot on the ladder.

Sydney Olympic has won just won games in six appearances.

Sydney Olympic sits third last on the Club Championship ladder- just 12 points away from last.

It is blatantly obvious that Sydney Olympic in 2010 is NOT GOOD ENOUGH- and unless they start winning games, they will remain serious relegation contenders.

It's as simple as that!
