⇒ KARA-SEL BEARS NO WINS YET...

The Berries remain in VERY SERIOUS trouble...

They remain rock-bottom of the Club Championship ladder- and the gap between second last is starting to widen.

Is there NOBODY capable of saving them?

Not even Steve Karavatakis?

So far the Berries under "Kara" have not won a game.

Not in 1st Grade...

Not even their U/20's...

Not even their U/18's...

1st Grade is in serious trouble. 2 wins from 12 games is abysmal. They are simply going through the motions with nothing to play for- other than pride.

The U/20's have now racked up a disgraceful 6 losses-on-the-trot after their abysmal 5-0 hammering from Marconi- and now they are clearly last, with a shocking 31 goals conceded in 12 games played thus far.

And the U/18's also racked up another loss- making it 3 on-the-trot.

Worse still for the Berries, Bankstown defeated Manly and have escaped a little bit on the Club Championship ladder.

Leaving the Berries stranded in last spot for yet another week.

What on earth is going on?

"New blood" the Berries they told us...

Yeah right.

It's back to Super League in 2011 for them unless things change dramatically in the coming weeks.

⇒ EAGLES WAITING IN THE WINGS...

Guess which Super League club is waiting for the Berries to collapse?

With LAKIS KONISTIS

Sports World

The very club that the Berries replaced in the Premier League- Parramatta Eagles.

The Eagles have been waiting patiently for their revenge and at present it's looking like this MAY be the year.

Parramatta Eagles currently lead the Super League competition by just two points and should they stay in top spot, then their ascension to the Premier League in 2011 is assured- but will it be at the Berries' expense?

Time will tell...

⇒ CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP TABLE: after Round 12

Relegation from the Premier League competition will be based on the following Club Championship table. The club that finishes at the bottom of the club championship table (currently being the Berries), WILL be relegated!

Bonnyrigg	193
Blacktown City	185
Sydney United	184
Marconi	182
Sutherland	163
Apia	111
Bankstown	109
Syd Olympic	107
Rockdale	102
South Coast	100
Manly	97
BERRIES	82

⇒ WHO'S TO BLAME NOW SYDNEY OLYMPIC?

Don't tell me they're still blaming Pat Marando?

Sydney Olympic too has become an embarrassment in 2010.

They were humiliated by Granville Rage in the McDonalds Cup.

Now they are languishing in 9th spot on the Premiership table- with the worst defence in the league.

And they are NOT SAFE yet as far as relegation goes either.

I just cannot believe a club such as Olympic can fail so badly year after year.

They have absolutely NO EXCUSE!

⇒ DOUMANIS DOMINATING!

On a much happier note...

Gee it's great to see the Greek background players at least stepping up to the mark week in week out for the club.

None more so than Anthony Doumanis.

He has been in outstanding form for Olympic and showed his true potential yet again against the Sharks last weekend.

⇒ A-LEAGUE SEASON DRAW RELEASED

The draw for the Hyundai A-League 2010/11 season has been released by Football Federation Australia (FFA).

The Hyundai A-League will kick off on Thursday night August 5th with the newest franchise club Melbourne Heart hosting the Central Coast Mariners at AAMI Park in Melbourne.

The extended weekend of football action continues on Friday night when Adelaide United take on Newcastle Jets and the colossal match up of Perth

Glory v North Queensland Fury when Robbie Fowler and Ian Ferguson play host to the club that they left.

On Saturday it's the Hyundai A-League 2010 Grand Final replay when Sydney FC take on Melbourne Victory at the SFS and on Sunday the weekend finishes with the 'M1 Derby' with Brisbane Roar travelling south to take on Gold Coast United at Skilled Park.

The season culminates on the second weekend of March, 2011.

Some key changes include:

- 11 teams all playing 30 matches each.
- 27 weeks of football.
- An additional 30 games taking the total number of regular season matches to 165.
- Clubs play each other three times.
- An increase in the number of mid-week matches.
- First ever-double header.

"In working through a myriad of possibilities we believe that we have produced a draw that is both equitable for clubs and exciting for fans," Buckley said.

⇒ NEW CHAIR FOR CLINTON

Bill Clinton is the next US rep to try bring the World Cup to the United States. The former president will serve as honorary chairman of the nation's bid to host the 2018 or 2022 World Cup.

The United States submitted the paperwork for the bid to FIFA last week; hosts for each tournament will be selected December 2nd.

"We now have seven months of hard work ahead," Clinton said after raising a jersey with his name and the number 11 on it at FC Harlem Field at the Children's Aid Society.
