APIA'S GOLDEN RUN CONTINUES...

The Apia Leichhardt Tigers, after a dismal start to 2010, continue to enjoy one heck of a season, as their fairytale continues...

Week One of the NSW Premier League semi finals has seen the Tigers put an end to the Marconi Stallions courtesy of a wonderful well-taken goal by Franco Parisi late in the second half.

The Tigers now meet Sydney United at Edensor Park on Sunday in Week Two- another elimination game for them.

Both teams have recorded wins against each other during the season proper and this is another clash which is certain to go down right to the wire.

GRAND FINAL AT PARRAMATTA STADIUM

The NSW Premier League Grand Finals in 2010 will be played at Parramatta Stadium. The U/18's will kick-off at 10am, followed by the U/20's at 12:30pm and the all-important 1st Grade Final set down for 3:00pm.

OLYMPIC HAS MIXED SUCCESS...

Sydney Olympic had mixed success during the first weekend of the finals series...

U/20's:

The club's U/20's were edged out (0-

1) by Sydney United and must now back up this weekend against the Sutherland Sharks in an elimination semi final.

U/16:

The same result (0-1) against Sydney United again- only this time Olympic's U/16's are eliminated for 2010.

U/15's:

Due to Sutherland's participation in the Manchester Cup, the U/15's preliminary semi final against Sydney Olympic did not take place- it has been rescheduled for tomorrow at 12pm.

The following Major/Minor semi finals will then be played at Marconi Stadium on Tuesday 17th August 2010.

U/14's:

FINALLY some happiness for Sydney Olympic with the club's U/14's beating and eliminating the Sutherland Sharks for 2010.

The youngsters must back up for another elimination semi against the Marconi Stallions who were beaten by Manly on penalties.

U/13's:

And finally, more grief for Olympic when they were beaten by the West Sydney Berries 2-1. The Berries play for a Grand Final berth (vs Marconi) and Olympic is now involved in an elimination semi against Manly United.

HERCULES DESTROYS MINOTAURS DREAM!

Belmore Hercules has destroyed the Hurstville City Minotaurs' dream of promotion to Division One courtesy of its two victories against them in 2010- the first a 6-0 massacre, and now a hard fought 2-1 win for good measure.

These two losses by the Minotaurs has diminished their chance of promotion now.

That honour however remains wide open still with either Luddenham United, Fairfield Wanderers or Fairfield Bulls still in contention for promotion.

The once mighty Hakoah remains hot-favourite to run last.

PORTUGUESE MADNESS!

You wouldn't believe it...

Bottom-placed Fraser Park beat fellow compatriots Dulwich Hill 2-1 last weekend.

But in doing so, they have now left Dulwich Hill in last spot on the NSW Super League ladder with just one round to go this weekend!

Dulwich Hill does have a catch-up game to play but those Portuguese fingernails will be nervously bitten this weekend!

What makes things even more intriguing is that Fraser Park is away to second-last placed Mount Druitt- who can still end up last as well.

But the most nervous of all must be Dulwich Hill now who are set to meet the high flying Parramatta Eagles!

Heaven help them...

BRUMBIES PREMIERS & PROMOTED!

In Division One the Hills Brumbies have taken out the Minor Premiership and are therefore due to be promoted to the NSW Super League next season.

The Stanmore Hawks kept their slim semi finals hopes alive with a wonderful 2-1 victory over Mounties Wanderers.

Hurstville ZFC will be relegated at the end of the year- but who will take their place is still undecided.

WHAT ABOUT THE WOMEN?

Conratulations to the Illawarra Stingrays (Womens Premier League) and to the Blacktown Spartans (Womens Super League) for winning their respective Premierships too.
