

Australia's very own Karate Kid

Chris Pikis, the 13-year-old from Preston's who has become a media star since the Leader broke the story on October 7, 2009 about Chris using his karate skills to fend off an attempted abduction continues to draw media attention and general public. Below we have included some of his recent events and his latest tournament results.

Karate Kid Movie Preview Screening

Sony Pictures invite Chris to attend the preview screening of the new Karate Kid movie starring Jaden Smith and Jackie Chan.

Chris thanks Sony Pictures for the opportunity, a true Karate Kid fan from a very young age; The Karate Kid movie series was the inspiration for Chris to begin his Martial Arts journey.

Chris' Home Gym / Training area

Areas of the family home have now being converted to accommodate the large collection of trophies and medals won by Chris in past Regional, State, Australian and World Tournaments. In this area there is also a selection of training equipment, kick bags, punch bags, Martial Arts training weapons, Karate training videos, chronological photo wall of Chris' Martial Arts Journey, and hanging of the walls are a wide range of Certificates from tournaments, rank, special seminars and photos of community appearances such as McHappy

Chris' latest tournament results:

National All Styles (NAS) Tournament Round 4, 29th August 2010

Since 1984 Martial Artists from all over Australia have gathered to contest in Australia's most prestigious martial arts competition, the Australian National All Styles (NAS).

Men, women and children of all different martial arts backgrounds have competed in this most unbiased and non-restrictive ALL STYLES event.

Karate, Kung Fu, freestyle, kickboxing, Kempo and a host of other martial arts have been able to compete in this impartial, equitable, world renowned collective of martial arts styles and forms.

- Chris' results
- 1st in weapons
 - 2nd in forms (kata)
 - 2nd Point Sparring (fighting)
 - 2nd Continuous Sparring

Day, Australia Day / CBD Stranger Danger awareness day and Dalmeny Public school Stranger Danger Seminar

Community

Chris has now stepped up his Children's Hospital at Westmead fundraising to the next level and would like to ask all for a helping hand. Anyone can donate by visiting www.aussiekaratekid.com.au and follow the links to donate to the Children's hospital. 100% of all money donated goes to the Children's Hospital at Westmead via a secure internet transaction to help the sick Children get better.

Okinawan Kobudo Weapons 1st Dan Black belt grading

After achieving in May his Black Belt in Go Kan Ryu Karate a traditional Japanese style the 14 year old is now in preparation and training for his 1st Dan Black Belt in traditional Okinawan Kobudo (Ancient Warrior Ways) is the study of so called "karate weapons".

