

AT THE MYTILENIAN HOUSE

“FEAST OF SARDINE”

On Sunday the Mytilenian Brotherhood of Sydney and NSW organized for the 7th continuous year the ‘feast of Sardine’ (yiorti sardelas) at the Mytilenian House. It was a beautiful celebration that was attended by over 300 people. There was live music by George Lagoutaris. Abundant and tasty food which was cooked by the members of the Women’s Committee. The President Mr Stavros Kritikos welcomed all and thanked them for their presence.

The ‘feast of Sardine’ was honoured by the presense of the Mayor of Randwick Mr John Procopiadis, the co-ordinator of SAE Mr George Angelopoulos, Mr Christo Paxinos, Jim Koutroumanis, Aleko Galelis from the committee of ‘Marathon: 2500 years’, Mrs Sofia Kotsi, Vasili Kritharas, Vasili Minas, Antoni Sentas, Aggeliki Skiadopoulos, George Savvas, Panayioti Malamas, Grigori Chronopoulos, members of the committee of St Euphemia and many more.

Once again, congratulations to the Mytilenian Brotherhood for the splendid organisation and their continuous progress.

From the visit of the Greek Ambassador to the Hostel for the Aged of the GOC of NSW

With great joy the president of the Greek Orthodox Community NSW, Mr Harry Danalis and members of the Administrative Council, Mrs Evdokia Katahana director and members of the Nursing Home welcomed the ambassador of Greece Mr Alexio Christopoulos with his wife and the Consul General of Sydney Mr Vasilio Tolios. Mr Christopoulos thanked the Greek Orthodox Community for their work and efforts in improving the quality life of the elderly. Mr Harry Danalis thanked the Greek diplomats and invited the ambassador Mr Christopoulos to visit the Greek Orthodox Community for further discussions and to maintain the exceptional relations between the two parties.
