

On Thursday 26th of May 2011, the NSW football community was saddened to hear of the passing of Blacktown City FC defender Tyler Simpson. One of the true characters of the NSW Premier League in recent seasons, the 25-year-old defender has touched the hearts of many Blacktown City FC supporters – the defender played a huge part in his side’s 2010 championship triumph where the side overcame the heavy favourite Bonnyrigg White Eagles to clinch the title. The defender’s presence will be missed by the entire football com-

-Football NSW & Blacktown City FC Press Release

Despite his young years, Simpson was a ‘veteran’ in the Blacktown City squad due to his composure, belief and overall experience. Prior to his Blacktown City FC career, Simpson had a brief experience with Sydney Olympic. Simpson also got a taste of the A-League with spells at Queensland Roar and Perth Glory before resuming his NSW Premier League career at Blacktown City. Tyler Simpson’s junior career took the defender from Gladesville-Hornsby, A.P.I.A.-Leichhardt Tigers and Northern Sprit, along with a stint in the Armenian Premier League with Dinamo-Zenit Yerevan.
