WELCOME to the RED PLANET

SYDNEY'S OLYMPIAKOS SUPPORTERS GATHER FOR THE TRADITIONAL CUTTING OF THE VASILOPITTA

They are loud and enthusiastic. Young and old. Men and women. Even a toddler decked out in full red and white regalia. They belong to a group called "The Red Sharks" and they have gathered at Lakemba's Greek Community Club not only to cut the traditional vasilopitta and officially usher in the new year, but most importantly to celebrate another victorious year for their favorite team. Welcome to the world of the official Sydney Olympiakos Supporters Club.
