

OFFICIAL SYDNEY OLYMPIAKOS SUPPORTERS CLUB

This Sunday coming, the club is heading for Belmore church at 9am where a service will be held in loving memory of the victims of the Olympiakos fans that were trampled during a home game against AEK FC at Karaiskaki Stadium. "We extend an invitation to everyone to come and honor those people that lost their lives on that fateful date" Margiolis says. Furthermore, the Red Sharks are organizing a dance in May, packed to the brim with many a surprise.

Naturally, the Red Sharks every move is supported by the Gate 7 club as well as the official Olympiakos. This support is expressed not only through the provision of the necessary material for posters, but also through monetary means. Alekos Belehras, member of the committee takes the baton: "We are currently in talks with Red Store (ie Olympiakos official merchandise providers) and we are hoping they will supply us with all the necessary material so we can have an Olympiakos stall for this year's Greek Festival of Sydney, with a lot of memorabilia for sale".

Until their own clubhouse is up and running, The Red Sharks use Marrickville's Club House Café (to the owners of which they are eternally grateful) as the place where they gather to watch their idols add yet more pages to the team's Book of Achievements.

For all the avid Olympiakos supporters out there, Margiolis sends another message: "In a couple of weeks, we will stage the comeback of our own radio show". The show will be broadcasted through internet site www.redonair.com every Monday, between 7 and 9 in the evenings, and will be hosted by the members of the local Red Sharks club.

The final word goes to the club's tireless president: "I would like to thank the Greek Community Club for all their help and support, as well as all the guys of the club for all the work they have put into this. We are talking about a lot of hard work, with a lot of passion put into it".

After all, soccer – or football, as is its proper name – is indeed a team sport. Now, can someone please pass me the ball?
