

Justin's 21st birthday celebrations

With a party at Giorgio's, the famous haunt of Sydney's loves of good food, Giorgio's, Spiros and Georgia Charalambous, owners of the renowned café-bar of Belmore, celebrated the 21st birthday of their son Justin. Little sisters Natasha and Olivia overwhelmed with joy wished their big brother to live till he is 100 years old. Needless to say, Justin's pappou was also there to see his beloved grandson "Kritikaro from Psiloritis" as he calls him, celebrate his birthday. Also present were the godfather and godmother of the young man, Anastasios and Maria Chronis, proud of the achievements of their godson, who despite the young of his age has already started his career in business with many dreams for the future. "Ο Kosmos" newspaper was also there, not only to capture on camera the doings of the party, but also to wish the proud parents, grandparents and godparents "να σας ζήσει" and to young man "χρόνια πολλά και ευτυχισμένα".
