

HATZIYIANNIS BIG HARBOUR

st decade. And those that made the trip to Darling t of the 31st Greek Festival of Sydney, had ample g man is loved so much by so many in different e rather large crowd that gathered to catch him in y the breeze of the cold autumn's day, Hatziyiannis, for taking the time to attend the festival, before ter seeing so many Greek and Greek-Cypriot flags ack catalogue and a carefully picked songs for the eeding out of the palm of his hand. And when the as the best testament of his abilities as a performer.

