Heritage Round ready for take off

Football NSW Media Manager Mark Stavroulakis echoed the Football NSW CEO's sentiments...

Every club has a story to tell – whether it be an elderly fan who used to be a player and hasn't missed a game, a volunteer who has manned the canteen for 20 years, or a groundsman who has been the first to arrive and the last to leave since the day the club began. "It's a chance to recognise past players and past victories."

THE glittering history of our PS4 NPL NSW Men's 1 clubs will be celebrated with the inaugural Heritage Round launching

Football NSW CEO Eddie Moore paid tribute to the clubs' hard work in promoting the game and nurturing talent... "It's great that we honour these clubs who have given the game so much here in Australia and NSW, with the inaugural Heritage Round. "Each club has played a pivotal role in the development of our game and we have seen so many past and present Socceroos stars come through these ranks. "I wish all clubs the best of luck in what will be a monumental weekend of football for the PS4 NPL NSW Men's 1 competition."
