

Significant findings in Teaching and Learning Greek as a Second Language

Dr Patricia Koromvokis

My learning journey at Macquarie University started in February 2013 leaving my home country, Greece. On one hand, this was a big challenge; a new country, a new lifestyle, a new environment, on the other hand, a big chance which I had to take and an important choice which I had to make!