LIFE IS A TICKET

When one is born they are given a piece of paper with a number of manufacture. A dash follows suspended, floating, waiting. This piece of paper gives the holder a certain right, to enter a place, and participate in an event. For some, this place, this event, can be a walk in the park. For others it can be hell on earth. Our ticket sits us on a roller coaster which begins and like all rides eventually terminates. In between we experience the highs, the lows, the turns and twists. As you approach your destination it all flashes right before you one last time. A final date now follows the dash that has been suspended, floating, waiting.
