CHRISTMAS

I would like to take this opportunity to first and foremost thank everybody that played a huge role in making such a magazine possible for this special Christmas Edition. Thank you to our contributors, graphic designers and photographers who have worked endlessly simply for the love of sport, especially football, in putting this publication together.

Your drive, determination and work ethic has been second to none and one that needs to be recognised. A huge thank you to our valued readers, especially the ones that have been there since day one, in supporting the publication, we hope you have enjoyed what has been a fantastic 2017 season. We want to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and safe New Years and we hope to see you once more bigger and better in 2018.
