

The Petratos is a football family!!!

Not only did brothers Dimi, Kosta, Makis and their sister Pana all sign with the Newcastle Jets at the start of this season, but they've created a new family home – moving in together along with Dimi's wife Samantha and Kosta's fiancée Jess. And since the birth of Dimi and Samantha's son Vangeli a little over three months ago and the arrival of Kosta and Jess' little boy Angelo last month, it's a full house.

Kosta has particularly noticed the value of family support after a stint playing in Western Australia, where he made his A-League debut last season.
