04.08.2018
Sutherland Sharks	Marconi Stallions
Sydney United	Manly United
Sydney FC Youth	Blacktown City
05.08.2018
Hakoah Sydney	Rockdale City Suns
Wollongong Wolves	Sydney Olympic
APIA Tigers	Bonnyrigg WE
12.08.2018
APIA Tigers	Hakoah Sydney
Blacktown City	Sutherland Sharks
Manly United	Bonnyrigg WE
Marconi Stallions	Wollongong Wolves
Rockdale City Suns	Sydney FC Youth
Sydney Olympic	Sydney United

Wolves shot stopper Justin Pasfield has been a solid performer this season and will need a huge game to keep Olympic's dangerous attack at bay.

With so much on the line, Sydney Olympic will be the favourite for this clash despite playing away from home.

Can they keep their Premiership hopes alive or will Wollongong spoil their party?

#APIA Leichhardt Tigers FC v Bonnyrigg White Eagles FC, 4.15pm at Lambert Park

APIA are flying high on top of the table and will be determined to move a step closer to securing their second straight Premiership title with victory against Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

A 6-2 flogging of Sydney United 58 was a warning sign to the rest of the competition and APIA will be driven to deliver another impressive showing this Sunday.

Bonnyrigg on the other hand are playing for league survival with relegation on the cards after a 3-0 loss to Hakoah last round.

Jordan Murray has the main destroyer for APIA this season with a second setting 23 goals so far this campaign.

However, Billy McColl's side will need another source of attack this round with Murray unavailable for selection.

Franco Parisi could be given a rare start with the veteran midfielder still possessing some of the best chance creation skills in the competition.

Milan Susak will have a tough time to counter APIA's strong lineup and will need a big game from veteran players James Chronopolous, Ray Miller and Sam Gallaway.

APIA will be the big favourites for this match, but a shock Bonnyrigg upset would have massive Premiership implications.

Olympic had better luck last week with a comprehensive 3-1 win against Sutherland Sharks

Alejandro Sanchez has been in great form for Olympic up front and will surely be the man to trouble Wollongong's defence.
