Caltex Soccerroos 30-Player Squad - Training Camp - Antalya, Turkey (3-11 September 2018)

The Caltex Soccerroos' first training camp under Graham Arnold entered its fifth day in Antalya, Turkey on Friday.

Earlier in the day, FFA TV sat down with KRC Genk custodian Danny Vukovic and PEC Zwolle attacker Denis Genreau. Vukovic, who is set to feature in the UEFA Europa League with Genk this season, said playing on the continental stage in Europe will be a dream come true. "It's massive for me personally," Vukovic said. "Two years ago, I was playing in Australia and watching these sorts of games on TV, so now to have the chance to feature in these big matches is what I have dreamed of." "We are in a group [containing Besiktas, Malmo, and Sarpsborg] that we feel we can do well in. It's not going to be easy though. While playing two games a week and traveling through Europe is going to be difficult, we feel that we have the team that can progress to the next stage," he said. Meanwhile, Genreau - who is currently on loan in the Eredivisie from Melbourne City FC in the Hyundai A-League - said he feels 'honoured' to be part of the senior men's national football team training camp in Turkey. "It's been really nice to get to know the boys, get to know the staff, and to share a dressing room with some of Australia's best players," Genreau said. "Every time I put on the jersey as a Young Soccerroo I was extremely excited and very honoured as well. But to be invited to a Soccerroos training camp, and the fact that Graham Arnold and the FFA are looking at me and following me in Europe at the moment is fantastic. It's every footballer's dream to put on the jersey one day for the national team and I couldn't be happier to be involved at the moment," he said.
