U20s Grade GRAND FINAL ST GEORGE CITY FA – SYDNEY UNIVERSITY

Valentine Sports Park No.2
Sunday, September 23 @ 12-30pm

St George City FA will take on Sydney University in the Under 20s Grand Final with the game kicking off at 12-30pm.

St George City FA won the Premiership in style, winning 20 and drawing 2 of their 26 matches, scoring a mammoth 94 goals in the process.

St George City FA then won their Semi Final last weekend, beating Hawkesbury City 3-0 with goals from Riley Thomson-King, Michael Trajkovski and Seyfullah Eser, to book their spot in this week's decider. Riley Thomson-King will be one to watch, netting 19 goals this campaign, including one in the semi final.

Sydney University finished the competition proper in 3rd spot on the ladder, then proceeded to win two sudden death semi finals on their way to the Grand Final.

Andrew Casall and Conor Quilligan netted in a 2-0 win over SD Raiders, and they backed that up by trouncing 2nd placed Gladesville Ryde Magic 4-1 last week to book their spot in the big one. Reuben MacDonald, Joshua Johnson, Benjamin Nardi and Fergus Worrall found the net as the 'students' look to make it a memorable day this coming Sunday.

U18s Grade GRAND FINAL HAWKESBURY CITY – ST GEORGE CITY FA

Valentine Sports Park No.2
Sunday, September 23 @ 9-30am

Hawkesbury City will tackle St George City FA in the Under 18s Grand Final with the game kicking off at 9-30am.

Hawkesbury City finished the season in 3rd spot on the ladder, and came up trumps in their first Elimination Semi Final, beating SD Raiders 3-2, with 2 goals from Daniel Zahra and 1 from Callum Elliott.

Elliott also scored in the weekend's 1-1 draw with Sydney University, where the Hawks prevailed 5-4 in a penalty shootout.

St George City FA finished 4th on the ladder, before sending Dunbar Rovers packing 3-1 in the first of their elimination semi finals, with Joshua Keremelevski grabbing a hatrick.

Last weekend's semi final went to extra time, where the St George City FA side prevailed 4-3 over the U20s Premiers, Gladesville Ryde Magic. Keremelevski scored again, his 25th of a fruitful season, as did Hady Hussein, Reuben Awaritefe, and Mario Jagodic.

MARK MILLIGAN WINNING DEBUT

Mark Milligan has secured a win in his first appearance for new club Hibernian.

Milligan and fellow Soccerroo Jamie Maclaren both came off the bench in the 71st minute against Kilmarnock, with the score then locked at 2-2. It proved a telling double substitution from manager Neil Lennon. In the 78th minute Maclaren won a penalty. Flo Kamberi stepped up and converted it, giving Hibs a 3-2 victory. The result sees them move into fifth place in the Scottish Premiership, seven points behind league leaders and bitter rivals Hearts. Milligan signed for the Edinburgh club in August.
