ROUND 23 REVIEW

NPL 3 NSW MEN'S

We review all the action from the around the grounds following the conclusion of round 23 of the 2019 National Premier Leagues 3 NSW competition.

Bankstown United enjoyed a 2-0 triumph away to Dunbar Rovers at Hensley Athletic Field on Saturday afternoon; Western NSW Mariners and Sydney University could not be split as they drew 1-1 in arctic conditions at Proctor Park; A late goal snatched all three points away from Hawkesbury as they drew 1-1 at home to Gladesville Ryde Magic; Granville Rage went down 2-1 to Dulwich Hill at Garside Park on Saturday night; Camden Tigers were 4-2 winners over Inter Lions in their battle out at Ron Dine Stadium; Bankstown City condemned Parramatta to a 5-4 defeat in their fixture at Jensen Park on Sunday night. Arlington Oval was this week's venue for the match of the round as two heavyweights went head to head in a heated contest on Saturday night.

Hawks continued to create chances as the half wore and found themselves 2-0 up on 62 minutes from the ever-reliable corner routine from Perea Henche who swung the ball into the box before Quilligan nodded home.

Hawks stayed resolute in defence as they held onto their two-goal advantage while Chance continued to be a nuisance for the visitors with his darting runs down the left channel.

With eight minutes left to play, Chance was at it again when he provided a cut back for Vic Koutsoufis whose shot sailed just wide of the left post.

The win and subsequent three points sees Stanmore climb to 53 points as they retain their position at the top of the table, whilst the loss means that Raiders league standing remains unchanged as they retain 3rd spot with 48 points.

HAWKESBURY CITY FC - GLADESVILLE RYDE MAGIC 1-1

A last gasp goal from Gladesville Ryde Magic ensured that they took a share of the spoils from their fixture against Hawkesbury City at David Bertenshaw Field on Saturday night.

Brad Gibson got his name on the score sheet for the third week running as he opened the scoring for the Hawks in the first half.

A second yellow card to Magic's Aaron Khan midway through the second half should have spelt the end for any sort of comeback from the visitors.

However, Hawkesbury were made to pay the ultimate price for their wastefulness in front goal as Gladesville popped up with a 93rd minute equaliser.

Zoran Kolundzic delivered the sucker punch to the home side after his hopeful cross evaded everyone and nestled into the back corner of the goal.

The draw has no great bearing on the league standings as both the Hawks and Magic remain in 10th and 4th position respectively.
