

It was a fantastic season for both males and females as they got together in a monumental evening where over a record number of 650 guests attended with the night proudly presented by Fox Sports' Adam Peacock. Well over 40 awards were given on the evening with the Player of the Year selections the pick of the bunch. The State League Men's competition had 2019 Premiers Central Coast United's star attacker Daniel McFarlane grab the applause for a majestic season. Stanmore Hawks' prolific marksman Jovan Blagojevic grabbed NPL 3 NSW Men's honours while APIA Leichhardt Tigers' talented female star Ashleigh Palombi was an absolute superstar as she was crowned the number one player in the NPL 2 NSW Women's league. Finally, Western Sydney Wanderers classy young gun Mohamed Adam took out the final award of the night claiming the Silver Medal for a standout year in the NPL 2 NSW Men's competition.

➤ List of Award winners for 2019 on page 42 >