

The Role of Philhellenism in the 1821 Greek Revolution

Thursday 15 April

1821

Among the heroes of the Greek Revolution of 1821 were many individuals and groups around Europe and the world who participated in the War of Independence and supported it from afar. Associate Professor Nicholas Doumanis of UNSW and Professor Nikos Papastergiadis of the University of Melbourne will be coming together to shed light on the significant role played by Philhellenes and Philhellenism in the 1821 Revolution, in an event organised by the Combined Universities Greek Association (CUGA).

Zorba in the 21st Century

Wednesday 5 May

The Sydney Branch of the International Society of Friends of Nikos Kazantzakis is celebrating its twenty-one years of activities promoting the work and thought of the most internationally famous Greek writer. The event includes the launch of 20 Years with Nikos, edited by Dr Vassilis Adrahtas, with contributions by members of the Society, and a visual presentation featuring the life-story of the Sydney Branch. Join in a discussion about the relevance of Kazantzakis in the 21st century.
