

Nyfes, Kores, Gynes Castellorizian Women's Traditional Dress

Tue 18 - Sun 23 May

This exhibition includes photos illustrating the unique dress culture of Castellorizo, which selectively assimilated elements from either the East or the West or both at once. Archival photographs, focusing on the period 1890-1965, will show the garments worn by women on Castellorizo over that period. The myths, charm and origin of Castellorizian dress culture will be enriched by audio-visual material, and a presentation will focus on the history, beliefs and customs of the women who wore them.

Greek Life in Sydney in the 1950s

In the 1950s and 60s, a new wave of Greeks and Greek Cypriots began arriving in Sydney, joining established Greek families in neighbourhoods like Redfern, Paddington and Marrickville. Drawing on recent findings of the Greek Australian project, Nick Doumanis and George Kouvaros from the University of New South Wales will discuss the experiences of young newcomers and the kind of social world or "paroikia" they tried to create. The event will also discuss how people in the Greek community can approach their own family histories and how they can preserve and interpret oral, written and material evidence (e.g. photographs).
