FORTY PHOTOGRAPHS — A YEAR AT A TIME
PHOTOGRAPHER: EFFY ALEXAKIS

To celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Greek Festival of Sydney documentary photographer Effy Alexakis has accessed her vast archive on the Greek-Australian experience and selected one contemporary image to represent each year since 1982 in order to reveal the changing face of Greek-Australians. Alexakis' visual odyssey offers Greek-Australian viewers a unique look at their immediate past from one of their own. For the broader Australian community it forms a visual diary recording one of the most emblematic cultural groups within the flux and challenges of a contemporary multicultural society.

LEONARD COHEN ON HYDRA
LECTURE BY PROFESSOR VRASIDAS KARALIS

A presentation of Leonard Cohen's stay on Hydra in the 1960s and 70s and the impact of the island's atmosphere on his work as a lyricist, poet and musician. Cohen's presence on Hydra has been celebrated to this day because of his famous song "So Long, Marianne", which has become the musical emblem of an era but also an expression of the nostalgic recreation of a lost innocence. The lecture presents some of his songs and poems referring to the island and also examines the discovery of the Mediterranean as a landscape of imagination by artists, writers and celebrities in the 1960s.
